LOCALETTES.

The work of preparation for the babies is progressing quite satisfactorily.

Busses will leave the Pickwick hotel and public square every half hour for the reunion grounds to-day.

Round-trip tickets to the reunion grounds, from the depot or sunset-car crossing, will be 25 cents.

The theatrical season will be opened, in fact, in this city with a minstrel company on September 25.

In the recorder's court yesterday P. H. Towle and T. A. Kutz pleaded guilty to riding with public prostitutes and were each fined $10.

Fort Worth is in great need of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Observations of the past few days have convinced us of this fact.

Mr. R. H. Stanley rejoices in the possession of an eleven pounder, which arrived yesterday morning at his house. Babe and mother are doing well.

Look out for burglars and pickpockets during the reunion. Characters of this sort generally follow the crowds wherein they may best reap their harvest.

All the people coming from the country who desire to do so can drive their wagons into the encampment inclosure and will be furnished all the convenience for camping during the stay.

Dr. H. W. Moore, one of our popular young physicians, has moved his office and will hereafter be found over King's drug store. He has one of the neatest and easiest offices in the city.

R. W. Cannon, Esq., was tried by a jury yesterday in the recorder's court for disturbing the peace and found guilty. For his unlawful conduct Mr. Cannon was assessed $5 and trimmings.

B. G. Johnson, Esq., was called suddenly to his old home in Alabama yesterday by a telegram announcing the death of his mother. He will be absent from the city for some days on account thereof.

Mr. J. H. Kieth, the city marshal of Cleburne, arrived in the city yesterday morning with the woman, Eliza Pollard, who was wanted to testify in the Steeves case, which was set for 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

The damage suit of Gus Winsley vs. the City of Fort Worth, the fall partitioners of which appeared in THE GAZETTE at the time, was filed July 1 and yesterday as erroneously stated by us advised.

Prof. George, who will barbecue the meat for the reunion, estimates that there will be about fifteen boxes and fifty or sixty muttions eaten each day, bread, vegetables, etc., in proportion. What a table to spread!

Mrs. V. C. Giles, of Austin is in the city soliciting contributions to the Confederate soldiers' home of that city, and is meeting with much encouragement from our business men and bankers. She will remain over in the city during the reunion.

The examination trial of Jack Steeves, for complicity in the Branch robbery of February last, which was to have come up yesterday morning, has been indefinitely postponed by the unexpected absence of the defendant's counsel, B. G. Johnson, Esq., from the city.

A pistol was fired in the Bank Exchange saloon at the corner of Eighth and Main streets yesterday afternoon, but as to who fired the shot the officers were unable to ascertain. Bill Woods, the proprietor, was quite noisy and engaged in words and threats with a second-hand dealer next door to the saloon. No arrests.

The only cigarettes which do not stick to the lips are Opera Puffs.

They are nothing so desirable as good bread. It is the life of a family. To obtain this use Silver Load baking powder, as none other fills the bill.

All ex-Confederate and Union soldiers are cordially invited to call at our store and examine our standard screw low-quarter cal shoes. They are the best on the market. Only $1.50 a pair; sold elsewhere at $2.00.

RANDALL & CHAMBERS CO.

If your bread is not just to the "queen's taste," use Silver Load baking powder.

That the quantity of Silver Load baking powder manufactured by J. H. Brown each month has more than doubled within the past year settles the question of its popularity wherever it has been introduced.

Gent's guaze shirts at 25c.

INGRAM & CO.

Reunion.

Visitors to the reunion grounds today are invited to call at stands No. 1 and 22 for their ice-cream and lemonade, and stand No. 6 for their cigars and tobacco.

W. W. Dunn is the only Mexican war veteran in the hotel business in Fort Worth. Veterans are cordially invited to give him a call, as well as all others. They will find beds spread with white linens. The best quality of mosquito-bars. The dining-room is not surpassed by any. The Mansion hotel is the largest in the city, extending 200 feet from Main to Bush on Fourth street. This hotel is the best equipped in the city. Electric bells in every room and rotary fans in dining-room.

If you have never tried Silver Load do so, as it is the only pure baking powder in use.

We buy for spot cash and give the discount thus obtained to our customers.
